

TRAVELLING FILM FESTIVAL

26 - 28
JULY 2024

OPENING NIGHT FRIDAY JULY 26

TICKETS AVAILABLE ONLINE NOW

AVAILABLE AT THE BOX OFFICE
OPENING NIGHT

See all nine films in the
TFF Warrawong
program for $130.50
($14.50 per ticket)!
Available online only.

<https://www.sff.org.au/tff/program/warrawong>

7:00pm

Charmian Clift - Life Burns High

FEATURE An intriguing portrait of Charmian Clift: a household name in the 1960's and one of Australia's finest writers.

7:00pm

The Meaningless Daydreams of Augie & Celeste

SHORT FILM Two best friends embark on a high-stakes game of imagination, which takes an unforeseeable turn and threatens to jeopardise their relationship.

SATURDAY JULY 27

10:15am

The Monk and the Gun

FEATURE from Oscar-nominated Pawo Choyning Dorji, set in the weeks before Bhutan's first democratic election in 2006. A moment of upheaval in this highly religious state and trouble brews when an elderly monk purchases two guns...

12:40pm

Marcello Mio

FEATURE Christophe Honoré's inventive Cannes Competition entry brings together an all-star French cast including Catherine Deneuve (playing herself) in this delightfully meta comedy paying homage to the great Marcello Mastroianni.

3:00pm

Black Dog

FEATURE A one-of-a-kind crowd pleaser featuring a man and many, many dogs that spectacularly riffs on westerns, Asian indie cinema, neo-noir and even Mad Max. Winner of Un Certain Regard at Cannes.

6:00pm

The Outrun

FEATURE Saoirse Ronan (Brooklyn, Little Women) is terrific as a recovering addict in this moving adaptation of Amy Liptrot's 2017 bestseller set in Scotland's Orkney Islands.

SUNDAY JULY 28

10:15am

You Should Have Been Here Yesterday

FEATURE A cinematic ode to Australia's early surfing culture featuring evocative restored footage, a chilled-out soundtrack, and narration from surfing aficionados and heroes such as Tim Winton and Wayne Lynch.

12:15pm

Ka Whawhai Tonu

FEATURE Once Were Warriors stars Temuera Morrison and Cliff Curtis reunite for an action-packed epic about Aotearoa's first land war, when vastly outnumbered Māori fought against colonial soldiers.

12:15pm

First Horse

SHORT FILM It's 1826, and Aotearoa is on the cusp of colonisation. A Young Māori girl's encounter with a dying man and his horse exposes her to the best and worst of her rapidly changing world.

3:00pm

Hesitation Wound

FEATURE Winners of Best Director, Best Actress and FIPRESCI Award at Istanbul Film Festival 2024. This taut and engaging Turkish legal thriller follows a criminal lawyer over the course of 24 hours as she deals with a major case, a personal crisis - and a moral dilemma.

5:30pm

All We Imagine As Light

FEATURE The first Indian film to appear in the Cannes Competition in 30 years, Payal Kapadia's dreamy romantic drama follows two women in Mumbai who are thwarted in their quests for love but retain hope. Grand Prix Winner Cannes 2024.

<https://www.sff.org.au/tff>

TFF

(02) 4274 2777 www.galacinema.com